HOLIDAY GREETINGS FROM OUR BELOVED LOIS!

Dear Friends in Al-Anon,

At this happy season, I greet you and wish you all the joys of the holidays and fulfillment in growth during the New Year.

I have been considering what Al-Anon means to me after all these years. It is easy to appraise what Al-Anon can mean to a newcomer; it may mean life itself.

Buy why do we long-timer members need Al-Anon?

Most of us have no drinking problem to contend with, and some of us, not even a partner with whom to adjust in working out our daily problems.

Al-Anon gives me many things. It gives me the inspiration to try to do God's will each day and keeps me from slumping back into careless spiritual practice.

It gives me the warmth and love of many friends wherever I go in Al-Anon, no matter how far from home or whether I have ever met these friends before. And in spite of distress and confusion in this troubled world, it helps me find joy in living and in loving my fellow man and my God.

Gratefully,

Tradition Twelve

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all the Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles above personalities.

"At my meeting I have a chance to express what's inside me. I don't have to feel that I'm in another world, alone in silence, with no one to turn to. Anonymity gives me the confidence to speak up knowing that nobody is going to gossip about what I've said. It's that special kind of "glue" that binds us together in trust."

—Alateen —A Day at a Time, pg. 103

I work very hard not to break another Al-Anon member's anonymity. I remember the saying "Who you see here, what you hear here, let it stay here." What happens at a meeting goes no further. Not gossiping is another way to keep member's anonymity. I don't tell other Al-Anon members who are at the meetings if they hadn't attended themselves. On a personal level, anonymity also can mean silence. Sometimes just being silent help keeps my EGO (Easing God Out) in check. I can keep quiet and not be a know-it-all. I don't have to tell everybody everything I know. People have a right to their own journey; I believe that sometimes people need to figure things out for themselves. When Al-Anon members have their own awakenings or self-realizations, the lessons are learned in their hearts.

There are so many things we do not have control over — but we do have control over our own recovery. When we are ready to ask the questions or ask for help, we want change and the lesson can be learned. That is when we become enlightened to a new way of living. Many times for me “placing principles above personalities” means it's best to be silent.

My Spiritual foundation is happier when I mind my own business. I work very hard not to rescue, enable and provoke people in my life (program and non-program people). I also remember my sponsor telling me once, “do you want to be happy, or right?.” I want to be happy so that means to me that I must pause and choose my battles with my sponsor's help.

“It's strange how someone we don't know can say exactly the right thing to help us with a very personal situation. I get the distinct impression, all the time, that through the program God is doing for us what we couldn't do for ourselves — and that no matter who we are, principles are more important than personalities.”

—Courage To Be Me-Living with Alcoholism, p. 261

—Susan C., Friday Night Fellowship

Gifts of Gratitude

“It's always forward that we have to look, and let our gratitude be for those to come. The people who have been in the past were just doing what they wanted to, what they loved to do — and what you yourselves are doing. So here's to the future of Al-Anon!”
Lois W., page 383 Many Voices, One Journey.

💎 Gift of Gratitude Campaign 💎

December is a time to reflect, remember, and honor the people who have supported us on our path of recovery. Through the Gift of Gratitude Campaign, you have the opportunity to make a monetary gift to the AIS Office in the name of those who have helped you along your journey.

💎 Each gift is a way to say thank you and to carry forward the spirit of recovery and service.

Directions:

- During the check-out process, select: “+ add special instructions to the seller” prompt:
 - Enter: “Gift of Gratitude for {Honoree’s First Name}”
- Add “SA” if you wish the name(s) of those you honor to be included in the Sincerely Al-Anon Newsletter.

Example:

To include in SA: Gift of Gratitude for Nancy—SA

To NOT include in SA: Gift of Gratitude for Nancy

Only first names will be used, in keeping with our tradition of anonymity.

Including a name is optional — your gratitude shines through whether or not it is listed.

💎 Together, let’s celebrate the people who have made a difference in our lives and continue to strengthen our fellowship through gratitude.

The Missouri Area invites You to Attend the South Central Regional Delegate’s Meeting

The South-Central Regional Delegate’s Meeting only comes to Missouri every 7 years — and you’re invited!

When: March 6-8, 2026

Where: Crowne Plaza St. Louis Airport Hotel, 11228 Lone Eagle Drive, Bridgeton, MO 64044

Why: The purpose of the gathering is to bring together the Delegates of the South-Central Region to prepare the new Delegates for the World Service Conference and bring closer communication and understanding to our Region.

Who: Attendance is open to any Al-Anon member interested in service.

How: A registration form will be available on the AIS website, or you can find it here at:

https://www.missouri-al-anon.org/uploads/1/1/6/7/116772009/2026_us_scrdm_registration_flyer.pdf

The Missouri Area is part of the South-Central Region along with Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Texas East and Texas West. The Areas in the region take turns hosting this event and 2026 is Missouri’s turn.

As stated above, the meeting is designed to prepare the newly elected Delegates. This year the newly elected Delegates are from Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana. On Friday night they will introduce themselves to the Region. In addition, past Delegates from the Region present a program to prepare the new Delegates for the World Service Conference. The Regional Trustee is usually present to report on the latest news from the WSO. A workshop on the Conference Theme which this year is 75 Years-One Purpose will be presented as well as discussion of Chosen Agenda Items submitted by the past Delegates attending. All this and more will happen at this event, plus you will meet members from all over the South-Central Region, expand your knowledge of our service arms, and see how our third legacy of service can enhance your recovery. The other purpose is to bring closer communication and understanding to our Region. What better way to accomplish this than to get together to fellowship, learn and reason things out together? This is an opportunity extended to our membership every year, but this year it is here in your hometown. We hope you will be there!

My Circle of Friends and Family

As the holidays near, I am reminded that my home and life were never of the holiday-greeting-card-TV-movie variety. While I was growing up, alcoholism always lingered, waiting to rear its head as family and friends gathered around tables of food, laughter, and plenty of mixed alcoholic drinks.

Fast-forward to having my own gatherings of family, friends, laughter, food, and of course, plenty of alcohol, and the holidays continued to become even more tarnished. Broken promises and dishes, no-shows to parties or events due to embarrassment, no longer being invited to events because of rude, loud, falling-down-drunk episodes—these all took a turn in how I anticipated the holidays. Add in the deaths of family members and a spouse whose birthday was right before the holidays, and it was a recipe for disaster. I thank God every day that I was introduced to the program and the members of Al-Anon Family Groups. I still don't have a greeting-card-movie-kind-of-home, but today there is laughter, there is gratitude for what I do have, and there is love and kindness shown by those in my circle of friends and family.

What's the difference? I have choices today that I did not know I had before Al-Anon. I no longer have to show up at, or participate in, events where there is the potential for drunken episodes. I am more accepting of myself, people, and events. They will be exactly the way they will be. Today, I welcome the parts of the holidays that I enjoy—the beautiful decorations, the lights, the great holiday music of my childhood, and the gathering of friends and family without alcohol. Giving of my time, lending a hand, receiving hugs, and sharing smiles are gifts worth more than anything I could find in a retail store. Today, I welcome the holidays with the new attitude I found in Al-Anon.

Carrying the Message: A Gift of Serenity

... One of my favorite passages in From Survival to Recovery \(B-21\) says: "If we willingly surrender ourselves to the spiritual discipline of the Twelve Steps, our lives can be transformed. We can become mature, responsible individuals with a great capacity for joy, fulfillment, and wonder." (p. 267).

Though I'll never be perfect, I strive for spiritual progress. Practicing these principles in all my affairs helps me navigate relationships—with myself, with others, and with my Higher Power. Just for today, "I will be unafraid... to enjoy what is beautiful, and to believe that as I give to the world, so the world will give to me." Sharing the gifts I've received from Al-Anon brings indescribable joy. It reinforces my own recovery and deepens my sense of connection. Carrying the message is not just a responsibility, it's a privilege.

Step Twelve invites us to continue our spiritual journey by living the Al-Anon principles and sharing the message of hope: You belong. You're welcome. You have something to contribute. And that is enough.

Holiday Preparations – Setting Boundaries & Expectations

The holidays can present a number of unhappy situations for the family members of alcoholics. Just as the type and severity of the situations vary, so do the options family members have for responding to those situations. One option for anyone affected by someone else's alcoholism are Al-Anon meetings. There are local and virtual meetings available across the globe in many languages. Generally, groups still meet during the holidays. If you want to try a meeting but want to verify that they are still meeting locally, you can call the Al-Anon World Service Office, +1 (888) 425-2666, or you can visit the World-wide Al-Anon Contact page to look up a local Al-Anon Information Service.

What a SUCCESSFUL Trivia Night!

District 2 held its first Trivia Night on Saturday, November 8th with proceeds exceeding $2,000 going to support the St. Louis Al-Anon Information Services Office. Approximately 120 members from Al-Anon, A.A., Alateen and friends of members were in attendance. There were 16 baskets donated by groups and individual members which brought in $869. The 50/50 raffle revenue was $209 after awarding three lucky winners, and table reservations revenue was $1,420.

The Listening, Caring and Sharing Alateen group from Festus and an Alateen from Sullivan were extremely helpful throughout the evening. They distributed question sheets to all the tables, and then quickly picked up all answers to deliver to the judges, Joe W. and Sue B. The Alateen group had a raffle basket and provided bottled water and soda with proceeds of $424 for the Alateen Step 11 Fundraiser. Another raffle basket's proceeds of $89 will be used to support the group's goal to rent a van to attend the April Come Be A Teen camp in April.

A HUGE thanks goes to Denise B., Group Representative for Helping Hands AFG, who came up with this idea, organized and chaired Trivia Night; Beth A. and Jim A. who provided the technology needed to display the scores; Judy S. and Phyllis who sold basket raffle tickets; Annette K. who sold 50/50 raffle tickets; and many others who showed up to help with set-up and clean up. And, last but not least, the emcee for the evening, thanks to Pete M.

Thanks to the members who donated their winnings to Alateen and the AIS Office. District 2 is grateful for the support of many members and friends who made Trivia Night a huge success!

A PRAYER FOR SIGNIFICANT OTHERS

I free you from my anxiety, from my personal idea of what constitutes happiness for you.

I trust the spirit of God in you, to guide you, to show you the way that is right for you, your highest good, the way that means happiness and success for you.

I place you lovingly in the hands of the Father. I stand by in faith. I refrain from imposing my will on you. As close as I am to you; as much as I love you, I cannot live your life for you. Your destiny, your place, your fulfillment is between you and God.

I know that we are one in God and that if I trust God in my life, and trust Him in yours, all will be well!

*The light of God surrounds us.
The love of God enfolds us; the presence of God protects us.*

*The presence of God watches over us..
Where I am God is.*

I love you, I bless you, I let you go!

This prayer was found in an old meeting binder donated
